

Volunteer with SCSJ

Southern Coalition for Social Justice

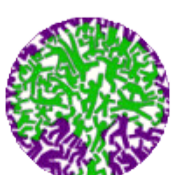

Why you should get involved:

- Help promote justice by empowering minority and low-income communities to defend and advance their political, social and economic rights.
- Use your media, lawyering, language, organizational skills, etc. to get the word out and help SCSJ be as effective as possible.
- Gain valuable experience working in the non-profit / social justice sector.

What you can do:

- Apply to be a legal or media intern
- Volunteer your Spanish skills and work on translation projects such as the HURRICANE Initiative
- Share your non-profit and social justice insight
- Spread the word, follow us on Twitter and Facebook, tell your friends, take action
